Contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. Federal Election Law requires us to report the name, address, occupation, and employer for contributions that aggregate in excess of $200 in an election cycle. The maximum an individual may contribute is $2,300 per election, with the primary and general election treated separately. Federal multi-candidate PACs may contribute $5,000 per election as above. Contributions from corporations, labor organizations, federal government contractors, and foreign nationals without permanent residency status ("greencards") are prohibited.
