Colin --

The battle to make college more affordable has come down to a critical few weeks in the Senate.

The banks and student loan companies already have spent millions of dollars on lobbying, PR firms, and advertisements in their attempt to stop reform and hang on to $87 billion in subsidies that could be going to help students. Now Campus Progress is taking action.

We've raised money to put this :30 second spot on cable TV and on Hulu in key states across the country:

Click here to check it out and spread the word.

We don't have the kind of money student loan companies have, so we're going to need your help spreading the ad on Facebook, Twitter, and email if we're going to get the word out.

Thanks.

Pedro
