Left vs. Right – Powered by Microsoft Live Search --Reveals Political Divide, Answers Election 2008 Questions

REDMOND, Wash. — Jan. 22, 2008

WHY

Because traditional values are cutting-edge, online media makes this the perfect forum for me to spread the truth while beating a liberal elitist at his own game At Left vs. Right you experience Rush Limbaugh, Sean Hannity and Ann Coulter all in one (but more intelligent) — me. Ask what you want and get answers free of the typical liberal bias. Conservative facts — unvarnished. Hear one of the greatest conservative commentators ever (except for Ronald Reagan, we miss you Gipper)! Need more? Go to <http://www.leftvsright.com> and watch me cream my lily-livered, liberal companion.

WHAT

Left vs. Right — powered by Microsoft Live Search — livens up your Election 2008 Internet searches. Ask questions, get answers and a laugh, be informed. Left vs. Right helps to deliver the facts you want about the political landscape, with fresh, edgy commentary that — after a year of this already — you need. Have some fun while you find out about the following:

- The candidates
- The scandals (Nancy Pelosi's plane comes to mind)
- What's the deal with John Edwards' hair?
- Policy issues
- How can parents better protect their children from liberals?
- And much, much more

WHO

Me, Britt Hayes, the always fair, always balanced, always correct voice of modern American conservatism. (And the liberal too — but he's just a propagandist.)

Britt Hayes, Republican strategist, proponent of international American democracy
